

Client: Fifth Third Bank
Event: National Sales Manager's Conference
Date: September 2007
Results: Standing Ovation

"Jason Jennings speech was an "off the planet" success. The chatter from the troops echoed what Jason heard before he left the conference. 'This is the best speaker I've ever heard!' Jason echoed the company's opening message as powerfully as I could imagine.

Thanks to Jason for helping to make our first ever Commercial National Sales Manager's Conference the best meeting imaginable. Hopefully, we're off to a great start in becoming a benchmark for one of Jason's future books."
