

(September 2005)

"All my sleepless nights were for naught. You really came and delivered! All throughout the conference people were commenting on how great you were. One retailer said, "I could have listened to that guy for hours. He was fantastic."

So, once again, on behalf of Nancy, Whitney, and the entire Couture Conference team, many thanks for kicking off the Conference in a most vigorous and stimulating way. I kept thinking of all the "bad managers" I've met whom I wished could hear you speak.

All the best
Lynn"
